

1255 Post Street Suite 451
San Francisco CA 94109
(415) 665-6902
fax (415) 567-5304
email betty@bkohlenberg.com
Website www.bkohlenberg.com

Betty Kohlenberg, M.S.
CERTIFIED REHABILITATION COUNSELOR
DIPLOMATE, AMERICAN BOARD of VOCATIONAL EXPERTS

Contents of a Family Law Vocational Evaluation Report

SOCIAL	description of the social situation and its influences on vocational planning, including family members and child care responsibilities
EDUCATION	educational experiences, formal and informal, including school attempts, degrees, certificates and self-education
EXPERIENCE	vocational and avocational experiences, including work, volunteering, internships, hobbies, part-time, free-lance and work within family businesses, paid or unpaid
HEALTH	description of physical and mental health, with an exploration and amplification of any influences on vocational capacity. Daily activities and limitations, if any
VOCATIONAL GOALS	expressed interests, desires, contemplated vocational activities and plans
VOCATIONAL TESTING	results of appropriate testing and interpretation
LABOR MARKET RESEARCH	current information about job availability, salary and requirements from published data, employers and industry experts, specific to the industry and geographic location
VOCATIONAL RECOMMENDATIONS	opinions and conclusions about employability, recommended occupations, earning capacity, wages, and vocational plan details including duration, costs, content and expected job titles